P & F Distributors is a Supplier of HDPE Pipe, Fittings, and Fusion Equipment. P & F Distributors is NOT a Licensed Contractor. Any reference to Contractor on the Customer's standard contract is accepted as 'standard language' and is used in reference to one that contracts or is party to a contract.

HDPE Pipe & Fittings

P & F Distributors (P&F) sells HDPE products based upon Approved Submittals.

- CUSTOMER IS RESPONSIBLE FOR FINAL TAKEOFF
- Pricing is based on quantities quoted. Quantity changes or partial shipments may result in price changes. All pipe quoted is subject to prior sale.

Fusion Equipment & Services

P&F also sells, rents, and services McElroy fusion equipment. We are an Authorized Distributor and an Authorized Service Center for McElroy fusion machines.

- Rental Maintenance – Customer shall at its own cost and expense, repair and maintain the rented equipment so as to keep the same in good and safe operating condition as when delivered by P & F Distributors to Customer; ordinary wear and tear from use and ordinary deterioration excepted.
- Fusion Training & Certification – We offer classes at our facilities or on your site.
- Fusion Technicians – All P&F Fusion Technicians are factory trained by Performance Pipe & McElroy Manufacturing. They will train on site until your crew has demonstrated competency and efficiency in fusion techniques. P&F can also provide a Technician to operate the equipment related to the fusion operation only. P&F is responsible for the fusion joint only. Furthermore, the Customer agrees, understands, and acknowledges that P & F Distributors is acting solely as an Equipment Lessor and is not performing any tasks that would require a license issued by the Contractors State License Board. A Technician is provided on the condition that he or she is under the sole control of the Customer, who is a properly Licensed Contractor.
